

Application for migration to Australia by a child

Form
47CH

The Department of Home Affairs (the Department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Important – Read this information carefully before you complete the application. Once it has been completed we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need; and
  - equality of opportunity for all.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages and can be obtained from www.homeaffairs.gov.au

You are encouraged to read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a statement, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will undertake to conduct yourself in accordance with the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia.

This statement must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

About this form

Important – Before you fill in this form you should read the information on the Department's website and consider which is the most suitable Child visa for your circumstances.

See <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/visa-listing>

If the applicant is a child who is under 16 years of age, the child's parent, relative or guardian may complete and sign the form on the child's behalf (depending on the visa for which the child is applying).

Note: If the child is applying from outside Australia, he/she will be applying to migrate. If the child is applying in Australia, he/she will be applying for permanent residence. In this form the term 'migrate' covers both.

Integrity of application

The Department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if the child or a member of their family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of the child's or a member of their family unit's identity;

this visa application may be refused and the child, and any members of their family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Before lodging the application

Make sure the required documents are attached to the application.

The child's sponsor should complete form 40CH Sponsorship for a child to migrate to Australia. Both forms (47CH and 40CH) should be lodged together.

Making a valid application

To lodge a valid application:

- complete this form;
- indicate the correct visa class (Child, Adoption or Orphan Relative) at Part A, Question 2 of this form. If the child is supported by an Australian state or territory welfare authority, this should also be indicated at Part A.

Note: Australian state or territory welfare authority supported child refers only to children in the permanent or long-term care of an Australian state or territory government welfare authority. It does not relate to any other type of support.

- provide the address where the applicant intends to live while the application is being dealt with. Failure to give a residential address will result in the application being invalid.

Note: A post office box address will not be accepted as an applicant's residential address;

- pay the required Visa Application Charge;

- post the application or send it by courier to the Child and Other Family Processing Centre.
Send the application along with all accompanying documents by post (with correct pre-paid postage) to:
Department of Home Affairs
Child and Other Family Processing Centre
Locked Bag 7
NORTHBRIDGE WA 6865

OR

by courier service to:

Department of Home Affairs
Child and Other Family Processing Centre
Wellington Central
836 Wellington Street
WEST PERTH WA 6005

Important: If the application is submitted at any other office or in any other way, it will not be a valid application and cannot be considered further. This application cannot be lodged in person.

In addition, if the child is in Australia and has had a visa refused or cancelled and does not hold a substantive visa, to make a valid application the child must:

- be under 25 years of age unless claiming to be incapacitated for work due to disability; and
- provide an approved form 40CH Sponsorship for a child to migrate to Australia that has been completed and signed by an Australian citizen, Australian permanent resident or eligible New Zealand citizen who claims to be the parent of the applicant.

The applicant must ensure that:

- the form is completed in English;
- all questions are answered truthfully; and
- supporting documents are provided where necessary.

If incorrect information or documents are provided, this may affect whether or not a visa is granted, or whether or not the visa might subsequently be cancelled.

Read the notes on each question. If a question is not applicable, write 'N/A'. Any changes or corrections made to the form must be initialled and dated by each person who signs the form. If Part I of this form is used or additional sheets of paper are attached, ensure each page is signed and dated by all persons who sign the form.

Visa Application Charge (VAC)

Refer to Part M – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge.

Refer to <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/visas/getting-a-visa/fees-and-charges> for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If the full Visa Application Charge amount is not paid in full, the visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Method of payment

Make the payment electronically through the 'My Payments' section of ImmiAccount. Sign into, or create, your ImmiAccount and select My Payments > Manage Payments > Pre-Pay Paper Service, at <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/applying-online-or-on-paper/online>

If you are outside Australia and cannot pay online in ImmiAccount check the Department's website for alternative payment methods for your location <https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/contact-us/offices-and-locations>

What happens after you lodge the visa application?

In Australia

If the applicant(s) is in Australia when the application is lodged, completing this form also means that the applicant(s) have made an application for a bridging visa class A, C or E, depending on whether they meet the application validity requirements.

If the applicant needs to travel outside Australia before the application is decided, they should contact the processing office regarding a bridging visa that would enable them to return to Australia.

For information on bridging visas, refer to information form 1024i Bridging visas available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

In and outside Australia

Once a decision has been made on the application, the applicant will be notified of that decision in writing.

If the application is refused, reasons for the refusal will be given as well as information about review rights.

Who the form covers

The application form covers the child (the primary applicant) and, if applicable, any members of the family unit of that child (the dependent applicant(s)).

Parental responsibility (custody) requirement (for a child under 18 years of age)

If another parent or any other person can legally determine where the child can live, permission for the child to migrate to Australia must be obtained from that person. This must be in the form of either a completed form 1229 Consent to grant an Australian visa to a child under the age of 18 years or a statutory declaration. Alternatively, the parental responsibility (custody) requirement will be satisfied if the sponsoring parent is in possession of a valid court order in relation to the child which permits them to permanently remove the child from the child's home country; or has a valid Australian child order issued by the Family Court of Australia and the grant of the visa would be consistent with that order.

Including family members in the child's application

The visa application will ask for information about each member of the child's family unit even if they do not intend to migrate with them.

Siblings are not member's of a child's family unit.

For information on who is a member of the family unit refer to form 1496i Including family members in your application, available on the Department's website

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/departmental-forms/pdf-forms>. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1496i before completing this form.

If a child is born to an applicant after an application is lodged and before a decision is made on that application by the Department, the child will be taken to be included in that application. The Department should be promptly notified of the birth of the child and provided a certified copy of their birth certificate.

Supporting documents

The documents that must be provided are listed in Part H of this application form. Enclose all documents with the application. The child may be asked to provide other documents during processing.

'Certified copies' of documents means copies authorised or stamped as being true copies of originals by a person or agency recognised by the law of your country. In Australia, they must be certified by a Justice of the Peace or Commissioner for Declarations or by a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made.

All documents not in English must be accompanied by a certified English translation of the original. In Australia, the translator must be accredited by the National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI). For more information, see www.naati.com.au

The child may be asked to provide the originals of documents at a later stage. Do not provide originals unless asked.

Health

All applicants for permanent visas including the main applicant and any members of the family unit must be assessed against the health requirement.

In addition, in certain circumstances, family members who are not applying for the visa will be assessed against the health requirement. Further information about the health requirement is available on the Department's website

<https://immi.homeaffairs.gov.au/help-support/meeting-our-requirements/health/who-needs-health-examinations>

Note: Applicants may have already undertaken a health assessment for their visa. However, the Department reserves the right to request additional health examinations as part of this visa application process.

Important information about privacy

The Privacy Act 1988 contains 13 Australian Privacy Principles which regulate the way that the Department collects and handles personal information. Information about how the Department collects, uses and discloses personal information for its key functions can be found in form 1442i Privacy notice. More information about the Department's general information handling practices (including form 1442i) can be found in the Department's Privacy policy at <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/access-and-accountability/our-commitments/privacy>

What is immigration assistance?

A person gives immigration assistance if he or she uses, or purports to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist a person with matters related under the Migration Act 1958.

The most common times assistance is provided is during visa application processes, visa cancellation processes or sponsorship processes (including monitoring or sanctions).

Note: Immigration assistance does not include simply filling in an application form, translating or interpreting or passing on information about an application without comment or explanation.

Registered migration agents

A registered migration agent is a person who is registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (OMARA) to provide immigration assistance.

If operating in Australia, migration agents must be registered with the OMARA.

Information on registered migration agents, including how to find one, is available on the OMARA website www.mara.gov.au

Legal practitioners

A legal practitioner is a lawyer who holds an Australian legal practising certificate (whether restricted or unrestricted) granted under a law of an Australian state or territory.

Legal practitioners can provide immigration assistance in connection with legal practice.

Information on legal practitioners, including how to find one, is available on the Law Council of Australia website.

Information on legal practitioners can also be sought from the relevant state or territory legal professional bodies.

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent or legal practitioner in order to provide immigration assistance:

- a close family member (spouse, child, adopted child, parent, brother or sister of a visa applicant);
- a sponsor or nominator for a visa applicant;
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

An exempt person must not charge a fee for their assistance. In Australia, if they do charge a fee they are committing an offence and penalties of up to 10 years jail can apply.

Appointing a registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person

To appoint a registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person, complete Part K – Options for receiving written communications.

A registered migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person should complete form 956 Appointment of a registered migration agent, legal practitioner or exempt person.

Form 956 is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If the child does not appoint a migration agent/legal practitioner/exempt person they may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on their behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about the child's application will be sent to their authorised recipient, unless they indicate that they wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to them.

The Department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as an applicant may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

The child will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to the child.

To appoint an authorised recipient complete:

- Part K – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/legal practitioners/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the Department's website www.homeaffairs.gov.au/allforms/

For those applicants who are applying on the basis of an inter-country adoption through a state or territory adoption authority, provide the adoption authority's details at Question 52 and they will be authorised to receive information about this application.

For those applicants who are applying on the basis of being a child supported by an Australian state or territory government welfare authority (or their authorised agent) supported child, please provide that authority's, or their authorised agent's, details where requested at Question 2. They will be authorised to receive information about this application.

Consent to communicate electronically

The Department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the Department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the Department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the Department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the Department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the Department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

56 ACKNOWLEDGEMENT REGARDING CERTAIN WELFARE PAYMENTS

This acknowledgement must be signed.

If the applicant is under 16 years of age, this acknowledgement may be signed on behalf of the child by the child's parent, relative or guardian as appropriate.

I understand that if granted a visa:

- there is up to a 4 year wait for certain welfare payments, including unemployment benefits, for most newly arrived migrants;
- I will need to have enough money, even if unemployed, to support myself for up to the first 4 years and if I run out of money or fail to get a job in that period, that would not be sufficient reason to make me eligible for welfare income support payments;
- the cost of living in Australia, compared to many other countries, is high. As a guide, the Australian Bureau of Statistics Household Expenditure Survey in 2015–16 reported that the average Australian household of 2.5 persons spent AUD1,425 per week. The main items of expenditure were current housing costs AUD279 per week, food and non-alcoholic beverages AUD237 per week and transport AUD207 per week;
- approval to migrate does not guarantee employment in Australia and that it is entirely my own responsibility to secure employment after arrival, including investigating my prospects before I arrive in Australia;
- work availability varies significantly from time to time in different parts of Australia and that for many jobs in Australia, applicants must be eligible for membership of a professional or industry organisation and/or be able to be registered or licensed with an Australian state authority before working in a particular occupation.

57 AUSTRALIAN VALUES STATEMENT

This statement must be signed by the main applicant and each person 18 years of age or over who is included in this application.

I confirm that I have read, or had explained to me, information provided by the Australian Government on Australian society and values.

I understand that Australian society values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion (including the freedom not to follow a particular religion), freedom of speech, and freedom of association;
- commitment to the rule of law, which means that all people are subject to the law and should obey it;
- parliamentary democracy whereby our laws are determined by parliaments elected by the people, those laws being paramount and overriding any other inconsistent religious or secular 'laws';
- equality of opportunity for all people, regardless of their gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, race, or national or ethnic origin;
- a 'fair go' for all that embraces:
  - mutual respect;
  - tolerance;
  - compassion for those in need;
  - equality of opportunity for all;
- the English language as the national language, and as an important unifying element of Australian society.

I undertake to conduct myself in accordance with these values of Australian society during my stay in Australia and to obey the laws of Australia.

I undertake to make reasonable efforts to learn the English language, if it is not my native language.

I understand that, if in the future I meet the legal qualifications for becoming an Australian citizen and my application is approved, I will need to pledge my loyalty to Australia and its people.
