PAPUA NEW GUINEA IMMIGRATION & CITIZENSHIP SERVICE AUTHORITY Citizenship Act 1975

APPLICATION FOR RESUMPTION OF CITIZENSHIP AND APPLICATION FOR DUAL CITIZENSHIP

Important information for applicants

The attached application form should be used when you are seeking to resume your previously held PNG Citizenship. It also provides the option to request approval for Dual Citizenship with a prescribed country.

If you have any questions regarding Citizenship or wish to make an appointment to discuss your circumstances, prior to lodging an application, please contact us: Citizenship@immigration.gov.pg or via our client service counter at the Central Government Office Waigani (Monday to Friday 9am-12pm).

This form is applicable for applicants who:

1. were PNG Citizens either on Independence Day (16 September 1975) or by Descent, or by Naturalisation (Long Term Residency, Sportsperson or Investor); and
2. have resided in PNG as a non-Citizen for the five years prior to this application.

Special circumstances (marriage) – where an applicant lost PNG Citizenship due to marriage and the marriage has permanently broken up or been annulled (as evidenced by divorce or dissolution papers), applicants can apply for resumption of Citizenship (Constitution, Section 72(3)).

- a) If residing in PNG when the marriage was dissolved – applications can be lodged three years from the date the marriage was permanently dissolved.
- b) If residing outside of PNG when the marriage was dissolved – applications can be lodged three years after returning to PNG to reside in the country.

Special circumstances (child) - where a child (under 19 years of age) has previously lost their PNG Citizenship the Minister may grant Citizenship where he is satisfied that it is in the best interests of the child to do so. In this case, the mandatory five year residency requirement does not apply. (Constitution, Section 74(3)).

Application fee

- K500 - if seeking resumption of Citizenship only.
 - K5,500 - if seeking resumption of Citizenship and approval for Dual Citizenship over 19 years old.
 - K2,500 - if seeking resumption of Citizenship and approval for Dual Citizenship under 19 years old.
- Your children and spouse cannot be included in your application. If your spouse or children are also seeking Citizenship they must make a separate application, under the circumstances for which they qualify, and pay the prescribed fee.
 - Before lodging your application you must pay the application fee. You will receive a receipt which you must include with your application. The application fees can be paid at:

- Within PNG: Department of Finance, ground floor Vulupindi Haus, Waigani, or Provincial Treasury Offices.
- Outside of PNG: at your nearest PNG Diplomatic Mission (contact the overseas mission for equivalent fees in the local currency)

- You MUST include the original copy of your fee receipt with your application. The PNG Immigration and Citizenship Service Authority cannot accept payment of fees.
- There are no refunds of the application fee if you decide to withdraw your application or if the application is refused. You are welcome to make an appointment with a Citizenship Officer, prior to application, if you wish to discuss your circumstances.

- Photograph: With your application you should submit one recent photograph. These should be head and shoulders only, taken 'Full Face' without had or tinted glasses and with a light coloured background. The photograph should be within the dimensions of 35mm x 45mm.
- Citizenship applicants must meet 'good character' criteria. You need to attach to this application a certified/notarised copy of police clearance Certificates from any country where you have resided for more than 6 months in the last 10 years. In addition you need to provide character references from two PNG Citizens, who have both known you for at least 2 years and who can attest to your good character and suitability for Citizenship.

- If you do not seek approval to hold Dual Citizenship with a prescribed country, you will be required to renounce all existing Citizenships as part of your PNG Citizenship ceremony.
- You need to ensure your application is completed in full and all supporting documents, including your receipt for applications fees, are included when you lodge your application. If an application is found to be incomplete then the application will be returned.
- You need to carefully check your application and support documents for accuracy as false or misleading information can result in severe penalties.
- Your signature on the application must be witnessed by an Authorised Officer:
 - For applicants residing in PNG – this is a Magistrate or Court Official from the National/Provincial/District Court House, or a qualified Legal Officer, with a Commissioner of Oaths title. The Authorising Officer must also provide a copy of his/her identification (passport bio data page, drivers licence, employee ID card etc).
 - For applicants residing overseas – this is any PNG Consular Official, accredited public notary or justice of the peace within the country where the applicant resides.

The Authorised Officer is also required to sight your original identity documents and certify a copy of those identity documents. They are also required to confirm that the application photo is a true likeness of you.

- PNG Birth Certificates – the previous “blue hard cover’ Birth Certificates are no longer an acceptable form of identity by PNG Immigration and Citizenship Service Authority. If you are a holder of the old style Certificate you will need to obtain a new birth Certificate before lodging this application.
- You or your representative can lodge your application at the Central Government Office Waigani (Monday to Friday 9am-12pm). At the time of lodgement you will receive an application receipt. Please keep a copy of your application and the lodgement receipt for future reference.
- Alternatively, you or your representative can lodge your application by mail to:

The Chief Migration Officer
PNG Immigration and Citizenship Service Authority
PO Box 1790
Boroko
National Capital District
Papua New Guinea.

- If overseas, you may lodge your application at the nearest PNG Embassy, High Commission, or Consulate.
- Within 5 working days of receiving the application you (or your representative where requested) will be issued with an email acknowledging receipt. Please keep a copy of your application and the email acknowledging receipt of the application for future reference.
- Following lodgement of your application, a Citizenship Officer may contact you to clarify details in your application and/or to make an interview appointment, if required.
- Offering Citizenship or approval for Dual Citizenship is an important decision for the PNG Government. Your application will be processed efficiently however it is important to note that the PNG Immigration and Citizenship Service Authority need to undertake extensive checks and verifications as part of the application process. Further your application needs to be considered by the PNG Citizenship Advisory Committee before a final decision is made by the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Immigration.

Dual Citizenship approval

- Approval to hold Dual Citizenship is limited to prescribed countries: Australia, Fiji, Germany, New Zealand, Samoa, United Kingdom, United States of America and Vanuatu
- If your request for Dual Citizenship is approved, you are required to advise the PNG's Immigration and Citizenship Service Authority in writing if your Citizenship of a prescribed country is subsequently renounced or revoked.
- If you are a PNG Citizen who holds Dual Citizenship your rights are limited under PNG's Constitution (Sections 50, 51 & 65). Dual Citizens do not have the right to vote in elections, hold public office positions or acquire freehold land. There are also restrictions around freedom of information. Dual Citizenship may also have implications in the other country for which Citizenship is held.
- PNG Citizens under 18 years can lawfully hold Dual Citizenship with another country(s). They cannot seek approval from the PNG Government to hold Dual Citizenship before they are 18 years old.
- PNG Citizens aged between 18 and 19 years, who already hold Dual Citizenship are required to:
 1. Renounce Citizenship of the other country(s) for which they hold Citizenship; or
 2. Seek approval by the PNG government to hold Dual Citizenship with a prescribed country, currently Australia, Fiji, Germany, New Zealand, Samoa, United Kingdom, United States of America or Vanuatu; or
 3. Renounce their PNG Citizenship.

PNG Citizenship is automatically lost if options 1 or 2 are not completed by the age of 19 years.
