Request for Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) Instructions

The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your Social Security Number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Department of the Treasury Internal Revenue Service guidelines for Form W-9. For other entities, it is your Employer Identification Number (EIN).

General Instructions

Use this form only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien) to provide your correct TIN and to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Internal Revenue Code Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

Montana Requirements:

The State of Montana is required to analyze whether a payment must be reported to the IRS. This form is used as a substitute W-9 which is required if Montana reports a payment to the IRS. If Montana does not have this information, the IRS could penalize the State.

Montana's accounting system uses the Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) as a unique identifier, to ensure the payment goes to the correct person or entity.

If you are a foreign national, you must complete a W-8.
