

Certification Of No Employer Identification Number (EIN) Or No Individual Social Security Number (SSN)

Idaho Transportation Department

For A Business, Trust, Or Other Entity With No EIN

If you have an employer identification number (EIN - taxpayer identification number issued by the IRS), Idaho Code Sections 49-401B and 49-504 require you to provide the EIN for any registration or title transaction. If your business, trust, or other entity does not have, and is not required to have an EIN, you may complete and submit this form in lieu of providing an EIN.

When a vehicle is being transferred into a trust, sales or use tax is due unless the person(s) transferring the vehicle will remain the beneficial owner(s) of the trust for life.

If an EIN has not been provided for the entity listed above, I hereby certify under penalty of perjury pursuant to the law of the State of Idaho all of the following statements:

- I certify that this entity does not have, and is not required to have an EIN;

Additionally if the entity for which I am signing is a trust,

- I certify I am the trustee; and
- If no sales tax or use tax is being paid for a vehicle being transferred to the trust, I certify that the owner(s) transferring the vehicle will remain the beneficial owner(s)* of the trust and the trust is paying no consideration for the vehicle.

I understand that making a false statement on this form is a felony under Idaho Code Sections 49-518(5) and 49-456(6).

*"Beneficial Owner" is the beneficiary - the party entitled to receive benefits from the trust.

For a Foreign Citizen With No SSN

If you are not a U.S. citizen and have an Idaho driver's license number or an Idaho identification card number, you are required to provide this or your social security number (SSN) or individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) for any registration or title transaction. If you do not have any of these numbers, you may complete this section and submit this form in lieu of providing a number if you present a valid foreign passport.

If you are a U.S citizen and do not have an Idaho driver's license number, Idaho identification card number, SSN or ITIN, you cannot use this form. You must obtain a letter from the Social Security Administration indicating you have no SSN.
