CERTIFICATIONS / SIGNATURES

All owners shown on DMV records must sign the application for a replacement salvage title. Signatures of registered owners are required even if they have released interest.

If the owners of record cannot certify what happened to the title, the person who can certify this must sign Line 14 in addition to the owner's signature.

To apply for a replacement salvage title with ANY CHANGE in ownership:

You must first determine whether an odometer disclosure is required with the transfer. (See exemptions below.)

Transfers exempt from odometer disclosure:

- When at least one registered owner is remaining the same.
- Model year 2010 vehicles or older.
- Model year 2011 or newer vehicles that are at least 20 years old at time of application.
- Vehicles with a manufacturer's gross vehicle weight rating of more than 16,000 pounds.
- Snowmobiles.
- Class I All-terrain vehicles.
- Trailers.
- Vehicles not equipped with an odometer at the time of manufacture.
- Transfer of a salvage title when an odometer disclosure is impossible to provide. (Attach a statement from the owner indicating the reason.)

If an odometer disclosure IS required:

A replacement and transfer with a complete change in ownership is not allowed.

- You must first obtain a replacement salvage title with at least one registered owner remaining on the title. The registered owner must then complete the odometer disclosure on the back of the title.
- Once the title has the required odometer disclosure, you can apply to transfer the title.

If an odometer disclosure IS NOT required:

1. Complete this replacement application.
2. Attach releases of interest from all parties shown on DMV records who will not be shown on the new title.
3. Complete the appropriate title application (Application for Title [Form 735-226] or Application for Salvage Title [Form 735-229]) showing how the new title is to be issued.
4. Submit both applications, the releases and the $27 salvage title fee to DMV. NOTE: If a regular title is applied for (Form 735-226), other requirements and fees are necessary.
